FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1875.

SIXTY pianos snapped their tuneful heartstrings in the Virginia fire.

VALUABLE copper mines have been discovered in Randolph county, Alabama.

Of Theodore Tilton's novel, "Tempest Tossed," 18,000 copies have been sold.

It has cost the Government $1,000,000,000 since 1759 to deal with red men and they've never got a square deal yet.

Moody and Sankey are thinking of trying the effect of saving grace at Litchfield, Mass. No one has been converted there for forty years. What a field.

A BERLIN special says that trade is almost at a standstill in that city for want of sufficient currency.

The flow from the body of water encountered last month in the Consolidated Virginia mine has decreased to five or six miners' inches.

The Canadians about Quebec are luxuriating in five feet of snow. That part of the Dominion ought to be a pleasant place to move away from.

THERE is a man in Buena Vista, Alabama, who has eleven daughters at home. It takes one hundred and ninety-eight yards of calico to go round.

The legislative committee on crime in New York have become satisfied that the police of New York city are in league with criminals. Other people knew that long ago.

The cost of labor alone to the Virginia Relief Committee is $1,170 per month, included in which is a manager at a salary of $200 per month. The committee had better dispense with so expensive a luxury as a high-toned and high-salaried manager.

STATE CONTROLLER HOBART has informed Judge Mesick of Virginia City, that the cost of an extra session of the Legislature would be upwards of $60,000, and that there is no money in the State fund to meet the expense, that fund now being $100,000 behind.

The railroad defaulter Woodruff, alias Miller, and wife are consolidating their property. Mr. Miller was half owner of the swamp land district known as Tyler Island, twenty-eight miles from Sacramento, California, having acquired it from her former husband's estate. Last week they traded fine property in Brighton known as the Friend Vineyard for Louis Winter's interest in Tyler Island, giving Winter's in addition other property and money.

THE DISGRACE ENDED.

Guibord is at last buried, and this latest specimen of medieval intolerance becomes part of history. Tuesday his remains, guarded by a heavy force of police and military, were taken from the vault, wherein they were temporarily laid; and carried to the burial place owned by his family. Here, still guarded, the ceremonies were performed, the body deposited in its grave, which was afterward filled with mixture of clay and cement. To prevent disinterment by human hyenas, who would not let a dead man rest in his grave, a guard was stationed over it until the cement shall harden. What a commentary upon the civilization, the enlightenment, the humanity of this boasted nineteenth century! Even the Saviour of mankind, reviled, persecuted and crucified by those who denied his mission and believed him an impostor, was properly entombed, and his followers permitted to watch over his sepulcher. Yet to bury a man in this age of thought and advancement, and to secure his remains from disinterment, a guard of police and military is required.

"LET NONE ESCAPE."

An Arkansas Father's Advice to His Son.

Bob, you are about leaving home for strange parts. You are going to throw me out of the game and go it alone. The odds are again you, Bob. Remember that industry and perseverance are the winning cards, as they are the "bowers." Book learning and all that sort of thing will do to fill up with, like small trumps, and you must have the bowers to back them or they ain't worth shucks. If luck is again you pretty strong, don't cave and look like a sick chicken on a rainy day, but hold up your head and make believe you are flush of trumps; they don't play so hard again you. I've lived and traveled around some, and I've found out that as soon as folks thought you held a weak hand they'd all buck again you strong. So, when you're sorta weak keep on a bold front, but play cautious, be satisfied with a pint. Many's the hand I've seen euchred because they played for too much. Keep your eye well skinned, Bob; don't let 'em rig you; recollect the game lies as much with head as with the hands. Be temperate; never get drunk, for then no matter how you play it, both bowers and the ace won't save you, for there's certain to be a misdeal or something wrong. And another thing Bob (this was spoken in a low tone), don't go too much on women; queens is kinder poor cards; the more you have of them the worse for you; you might have three and half trumps. I don't say discard 'em all; you get hold of one that's a trump; it's all your good, and there's sartin to be one out of four. And above all, Bob, be honest; never take a man's trick wot don't belong to you, nor slip "cards or rig," for then you can't look your man in the face, and when that's the case there's no fun in the game; it's a regular "cut throat." So now, Bob, farewell. Remember what I tell you and you will be sure to win; and if you don't it serves you right to be "skunked."

BETWEEN 1800 and 1900 buildings have been put up in Chicago since the great fire, the estimated cost of which aggregates between sixteen and eighteen millions of dollars.

A few weeks ago President Grant in a letter on the whisky frauds said "let none escape," Secretary Bristow has followed the President's advice, and with such success that the leaders of the ring have already confessed judgment. The dispatch sent to the press of the country by the Cincinnati Enquirer—rag-money organ—announcing that General Babcock and Orville Grant had been indicted by the St. Louis Grand Jury for complicity in the whisky frauds, appears to be a wanton piece of lying malice, or else, as is not unlikely, an attempt on the part of the whisky ring to scare the administration into making a truce with the thieves. Nothing about the indictment has been heard at Washington in circles which, were such an important fact true, would not be left without information. General Babcock denies that he has ever had any connection, in any way, with the whisky ring, and General Babcock has a high reputation as an officer and a gentleman. Secretary Bristow expresses the opinion, in which the Commissioner of Internal Revenue concurs, that there is no truth in the statement, and that it is sent out for sensational purposes, being a part of the tactics of the members of the whisky ring to break the force of their downfall. If it shall yet turn out that such indictments have been brought, it will be time enough to condemn the accused when their guilt has been proved. If they have not been brought, it will become the duty of the managers of the Associated Press to deal with those who have abused their confidence. That they will do so we have no doubt, for they cannot afford to allow that organization to be used as a vehicle for the dissemination of slander.

MORE CITIZENS.

The San Francisco mind is becoming seriously alarmed—or pretends to be—at the prospect of the Heathen Chinese appearing in the character of an American voter. There is a question as to whether John Chinaman can be naturalized, but there is none at all as to his right to vote if he has been born in the country or arrived here when he was under age. It appears that there are in San Francisco between 300 and 400 young Chinamen who will be legally qualified voters at the next election, having immigrated when under seventeen years, and therefore not being required to take out naturalization papers. The Chinese companies which fetch over the immigrants, and under contracts made at Hong-Kong, dispose of them almost or quite as absolutely as though they were slaves, it is reported propose to vote these young men at the election next year, and are fully alive to the advantages which will accrue to them (the companies) as manipulators of the Chinese element. For the last few years the Chinese immigrants have mainly been young men from sixteen to twenty years of age, and as very little attention has been paid by the State authorities to the statistics of Chinese immigration, no one knows what proportion of the young Chinamen were under seventeen years of age upon their arrival. Practically, therefore, it is within the power of the companies to vote all the young Chinamen of about twenty-one years of age in the State. Some of the anti-Chinese papers of San Francisco are terribly excited on the subject, and predict the destruction of our civilization.

A YOUNG man, named Henry A. Cook, was sued in a New York Court last week for a board bill. He put in a counter claim of $200 for time he had lost while running around trying to borrow money to pay the landlady. The Justice laughed at his impudence; but did not allow his claim.

FRIEDLANDER, the great grain king, pays a monthly rental of $3,700 for his apartments in the Palace Hotel. The family occupies some thirteen apartments, and in the suite is a magnificent billiard-room. The table is said to be the most beautiful in the world.

FOR the encouragement of all Renovites who are hugging Belcher stock to their bosoms we will say she is yielding three hundred tons a day.

OUR TOWN ROUTE.

Mr. Chas Thurston will hereafter have charge of the town route of the JOURNAL, delivering the paper to subscribers, and to him alone will they be responsible for payment from and after this date. All persons owing to the present time will please call at this office and settle their accounts. Mr. Thurston will deliver the paper promptly, and no one will have cause for complaint on this score. If you wish the JOURNAL at your place of business or residence give him your order.

WHY THIS DELAY?—Reno has been agitated for some time over a fire company and preliminary steps have been taken toward its foundation. The last meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the foreman, who was to call a citizens meeting when the subscription committee had collected in the pledged money. This call has not yet been made, though more than a week has elapsed. Of course we do not know why it is not called, but will take occasion once more to urge the necessity of prompt action. True the rain lessens the danger of fire, but remember that in "time of peace prepare for war," and in time of rain prepare for fire. The most essential part of the work yet remains to be done—for without an engine all previous action will be useless. We urge the committee on subscription to hurry up and let us feel easy again in the satisfaction of having an efficient fire company to guard our town.

CROWDS.—Since the cessation of work at Mackey-Fair's saw mills and flume, the streets of Reno have presented a lively appearance. The mill men, not having anything to do, hang around the street corners and talk. A person to look down the streets would suppose a great amount of business was being done, while in truth those visible are killing time. Next Spring they will find employment again at the mills, but till then it is a conundrum what they will do.

DANGEROUS.—A number of men make a regular practice of shooting at blackbirds as they fly around town. Now we like birds stewed, with a little gravy on them, as well as any one, but we don't like them well enough to jeopardize the lives of all our neighbors to procure them. Be a sportsman ever so careful he may sooner or later shoot some one. We advise them never to shoot in town. Go out and in a sportsman-like way get your game.

No Western mail and the heavy rains yesterday made the getting up of a newspaper a most energetic and loveable task—but the job is to let on easy terms.

The regular weekly meeting of the Good Templars will be held to-night in their hall.

LAND SLIDES AND WASH OUTS.

The heavy rains are demoralizing the railroads a great deal. Yesterday morning's passenger train going East, which should have arrived here at 2:30, did not leave Colfax until late yesterday afternoon, owing to a land slide near there. Another slide occurred near Verdi, causing the freight train, known as No. 8, drawn by engine No. 17, to get ditched. The engine was thrown upon its side and several of the cars were ditched. A wrecking train was sent from Truckee and the wreck removed as soon as possible. On the Virginia and Truckee Railroad yesterday all trains had to be abandoned, owing to damages done. One mile of track between Carson and Mill Station is under water, and two culverts at Mill Station were washed away. The bridge at Franktown is in imminent danger, so that was necessary to withhold all trains. East of us the track has not suffered so much, and the emigrant train arrived only one hour late, but it had to lay here until the track was cleared. Railroaders tell us that this is nearly as bad as it was last January when ditched trains, land slides and wash out were every day occurrences.

LATER.—Since writing the above we learn that the land slide at Verdi is a very serious one. About fifty tons of rock lies on the track, one box car is smashed to pieces and at 8 o'clock last evening the engine was still upon its side. The slide occurred just about fifty feet ahead of the train as it was going up the hill. Had it been a little later the result would have been more serious. It will not be cleared away before this afternoon. We hope the mail will be transferred.

CROSSINGS.—We were just about to sharpen our pencil for the purpose of informing the public there were not street crossings enough across Commercial Row, when Walker, Knust & Co. anticipated us and put down a good one in front of their store. This helps matters a great deal, and will lessen the demand for blacking. One does not enjoy the prospect of getting up to his ears in mud at any time, but particularly so when he is "spruced up." We breathe a blessing upon Walker, Knust & Co. every time we walk over that crossing.

STORM.—For some days past we have had a storm of wind and rain. How extensive the rainfall has been we have no means of telling as there is not a rain gauge in town, but it has rained almost incessantly since Sunday last. While it has been raining here it has been as steadily snowing in the mountains, and now at the Summit there is about four feet of snow with it still a falling by bucketsful. It is about as long a rain storm as Reno has ever experienced during the middle of November. Nice weather for young ducks.

STRONG.—A few evenings since the wind took possession of a sink we had on the back porch of our office, and threw it around entirely to free for the comfort of those in the neighborhood. The sink is a large wooden one, lined with zinc and must weigh fully one hundred pounds. Wind that will steal from a printer is mean enough to do anything.

RISING.—The warm rain has washed off all the snow on the lower hills and precipitated it into the Truckee river, so that now that stream is full indeed, contrasting very much from the placid stream of last Summer. If the rain continues much longer the trout will have enough water to drink for some time.

HELD.—In the Justice Court last Wednesday, L. F. Glascock, arrested for robbery on a charge of taking a horse from the custody of the Sheriff, was examined, and held to answer before the next Grand Jury in the sum of $1,000.

FULL SIZED.—The Virginia Enterprise is again full sized—as bright and pungent as ever. We forbear saying anything about Phoenix-like, but will congratulate our contemporaries on their recovering their won ton size and calibre.

PERSONAL.—A. M. Walker, of Truckee, called on us yesterday. He reports snow, mud, slush, rain and corruption generally in the streets of Truckee—or words to that effect.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.—Remember this evening at the Reno Opera House the charming Little Dorrit will have a benefit, when the beautiful drama of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be presented, with the petite beneficiary in the character of the angel child "Eva," Mr. Ashton as St. Clair, Mr. Mestayer, in his specialty of Uncle Tom, Mrs. Douglas as the Yankee spinster Miss Ophelia, will tell the audience "how shiftless" things are generally. It is a great bill, and on the occasion of our little friend's benefit, ought to bring out a crowded house. New scenery will be produced on the occasion, painted expressly for the company, by Mr. B. K. Hodges. On Saturday afternoon, the company will give a matinee performance of Rip Van Winkle, when the admission for ladies and children, will be the extraordinary low price of twenty-five cents.

ATTENTION.—Foreman McFarlin wants all members of Engine Company No. 1, to meet to-night in the rear of the McFarlin brick building, in the room back of the saddle shop. All members are desired to be present at 7 o'clock.

NOTICE.—Hereafter our store will be open on Sundays until 12 o'clock. Our neighbors can govern themselves accordingly. MANNING & DUCK.

"WATRY" & Co. announce that they have leased the International Restaurant. They will close it for a few days, but will re-open it on Monday next under the name of the "Saddle Rock Oyster and Chop House."

To RENT.—Room to rent. Enquire at Richardson & Drannan's saloon.

REMOVED.—The Misses Vance are now located on Virginia street, next door to the photograph gallery. They will receive at their dressmaking establishment and make to order in the latest styles, all kinds of plain and fancy sewing.

NOTICE.—Mr. Nels. Greenman is no longer our authorized agent. Our patrons will govern themselves accordingly. Su Lux & Co.

FOR SALE.—Nels. Hammond has a house for sale. Inquire of him for particulars.

OUR TOWN ROUTE.

Mr. Chas Thurston will hereafter have charge of the town route of the JOURNAL, delivering the paper to subscribers, and to him alone will they be responsible for payment from and after this date. All persons owing to the present time will please call at this office and settle their accounts. Mr. Thurston will deliver the paper promptly, and no one will have cause for complaint on this score. If you wish the JOURNAL at your place of business or residence give him your order.

WHY THIS DELAY?—Reno has been agitated for some time over a fire company and preliminary steps have been taken toward its foundation. The last meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the foreman, who was to call a citizens meeting when the subscription committee had collected in the pledged money. This call has not yet been made, though more than a week has elapsed. Of course we do not know why it is not called, but will take occasion once more to urge the necessity of prompt action. True the rain lessens the danger of fire, but remember that in "time of peace prepare for war," and in time of rain prepare for fire. The most essential part of the work yet remains to be done—for without an engine all previous action will be useless. We urge the committee on subscription to hurry up and let us feel easy again in the satisfaction of having an efficient fire company to guard our town.

CROWDS.—Since the cessation of work at Mackey-Fair's saw mills and flume, the streets of Reno have presented a lively appearance. The mill men, not having anything to do, hang around the street corners and talk. A person to look down the streets would suppose a great amount of business was being done, while in truth those visible are killing time. Next Spring they will find employment again at the mills, but till then it is a conundrum what they will do.

DANGEROUS.—A number of men make a regular practice of shooting at blackbirds as they fly around town. Now we like birds stewed, with a little gravy on them, as well as any one, but we don't like them well enough to jeopardize the lives of all our neighbors to procure them. Be a sportsman ever so careful he may sooner or later shoot some one. We advise them never to shoot in town. Go out and in a sportsman-like way get your game.

NO Western mail and the heavy rains yesterday made the getting up of a newspaper a most energetic and loveable task—but the job is to let on easy terms.

THE regular weekly meeting of the Good Templars will be held to-night in their hall.

LAND SLIDES AND WASH OUTS.

The heavy rains are demoralizing the railroads a great deal. Yesterday morning's passenger train going East, which should have arrived here at 2:30, did not leave Colfax until late yesterday afternoon, owing to a land slide near there. Another slide occurred near Verdi, causing the freight train, known as No. 8, drawn by engine No. 17, to get ditched. The engine was thrown upon its side and several of the cars were ditched. A wrecking train was sent from Truckee and the wreck removed as soon as possible. On the Virginia and Truckee Railroad yesterday all trains had to be abandoned, owing to damages done. One mile of track between Carson and Mill Station is under water, and two culverts at Mill Station were washed away. The bridge at Franktown is in imminent danger, so that was necessary to withhold all trains. East of us the track has not suffered so much, and the emigrant train arrived only one hour late, but it had to lay here until the track was cleared. Railroaders tell us that this is nearly as bad as it was last January when ditched trains, land slides and wash out were every day occurrences.

LATER.—Since writing the above we learn that the land slide at Verdi is a very serious one. About fifty tons of rock lies on the track, one box car is smashed to pieces and at 8 o'clock last evening the engine was still upon its side. The slide occurred just about fifty feet ahead of the train as it was going up the hill. Had it been a little later the result would have been more serious. It will not be cleared away before this afternoon. We hope the mail will be transferred.

CROSSINGS.—We were just about to sharpen our pencil for the purpose of informing the public there were not street crossings enough across Commercial Row, when Walker, Knust & Co. anticipated us and put down a good one in front of their store. This helps matters a great deal, and will lessen the demand for blacking. One does not enjoy the prospect of getting up to his ears in mud at any time, but particularly so when he is "spruced up." We breathe a blessing upon Walker, Knust & Co. every time we walk over that crossing.

STORM.—For some days past we have had a storm of wind and rain. How extensive the rainfall has been we have no means of telling as there is not a rain gauge in town, but it has rained almost incessantly since Sunday last. While it has been raining here it has been as steadily snowing in the mountains, and now at the Summit there is about four feet of snow with it still a falling by bucketsful. It is about as long a rain storm as Reno has ever experienced during the middle of November. Nice weather for young ducks.

STRONG.—A few evenings since the wind took possession of a sink we had on the back porch of our office, and threw it around entirely to free for the comfort of those in the neighborhood. The sink is a large wooden one, lined with zinc and must weigh fully one hundred pounds. Wind that will steal from a printer is mean enough to do anything.

RISING.—The warm rain has washed off all the snow on the lower hills and precipitated it into the Truckee river, so that now that stream is full indeed, contrasting very much from the placid stream of last Summer. If the rain continues much longer the trout will have enough water to drink for some time.

HELD.—In the Justice Court last Wednesday, L. F. Glascock, arrested for robbery on a charge of taking a horse from the custody of the Sheriff, was examined, and held to answer before the next Grand Jury in the sum of $1,000.

FULL SIZED.—The Virginia Enterprise is again full sized—as bright and pungent as ever. We forbear saying anything about Phoenix-like, but will congratulate our contemporaries on their recovering their won-

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

Remember this evening at the Reno Opera House the charming Little Dorrit will have a benefit, when the beautiful drama of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be presented, with the petite beneficiary in the character of the angel child "Eva," Mr. Ashton as St. Clair, Mr. Mestayer, in his specialty of Uncle Tom, Mrs. Douglas as the Yankee spinster Miss Ophelia, will tell the audience "how shiftless" things are generally. It is a great bill, and on the occasion of our little friend's benefit, ought to bring out a crowded house. New scenery will be produced on the occasion, painted expressly for the company, by Mr. B. K. Hodges. On Saturday afternoon, the company will give a matinee performance of Rip Van Winkle, when the admission for ladies and children, will be the extraordinary low price of twenty-five cents.

ATTENTION.—Foreman McFarlin wants all members of Engine Company No. 1, to meet to-night in the rear of the McFarlin brick building, in the room back of the saddle shop. All members are desired to be present at 7 o'clock.

NOTICE.—Hereafter our store will be open on Sundays until 12 o'clock. Our neighbors can govern themselves accordingly. MANNING & DUCK.

"WATRY" & Co. announce that they have leased the International Restaurant. They will close it for a few days, but will re-open it on Monday next under the name of the "Saddle Rock Oyster and Chop House."

To RENT.—Room to rent. Enquire at Richardson & Drannan's saloon.

REMOVED.—The Misses Vance are now located on Virginia street, next door to the photograph gallery. They will receive at their dressmaking establishment and make to order in the latest styles, all kinds of plain and fancy sewing.

NOTICE.—Mr. Nels. Greenman is no longer our authorized agent. Our patrons will govern themselves accordingly. Su Lux & Co.

FOR SALE.—Nels. Hammond has a house for sale. Inquire of him for particulars.
